

LONDON'S BESTSELLERS

Fiction

1. LAST ORDERS by Graham Swift (Picador, £15.99); Whitbread confeder.
2. HOGWEATHER by Terry Pratchett (Gollancz, £15.99); Discworld winter festival.
3. THE TAILOR OF PANAMA by John Le Carré (Hodder, £16.99); Spying abroad.
4. EVERY MAN FOR HIMSELF by Beryl Bainbridge (Duckworth, £14.99); Leaving a sinking ship.
6. DEATH IS NOW MY NEIGHBOUR by Colin Dexter (Macmillan, £16.99); More Endeavour Merse.
- DARK HORSE — THE INNOCENCE OF ROAST CHICKEN by Jo-Anne Richards (Headline, £16.99); Post-apartheid in South Africa.

Non-fiction

1. MY STORY by Sarah York (Simon and Schuster, £15.99); It sucks.
2. EUROPE A HISTORY by Norman Davies (CUP, £25); Monumental achievement.
3. MY NAME ESCAPES ME by Alec Guinness (Hamish Hamilton, £17); Out and about in London.
4. TWO FAT LADIES by Jennifer Peterson and Clarissa Dickson Wright (Ebury, £17.99); Yum yum.
5. HOW FAR FROM AUSTRERITZ by Alistair Horne (Macmillan, £20); Unbeatable Napoleon.
- DARK HORSE — POEMS ON THE UNDERGROUND anniversary edition (Cassell, £12.99); While away the hours.

Information supplied by Books Etc, Etc; Bookshop on Islington Green, N1; Dillons, W1; Hatchards, W1; Heywood Hill, W1; Kilburn Bookshop, NW6; Stoke Newington Bookshop, N16; Waterstone's, W8.

LONDON EVENING STANDARD

1996 11 19 6